Representative Feigenholtz & Senator Cullerton to host 12th District Town Hall Meeting

CHICAGO – Representative Sara Feigenholtz & Senator John Cullerton are hosting a town hall meeting to meet constituents and hear their thoughts on potential legislation, budget issues, and to answer questions & concerns regarding state matters.

This event will be held on Wednesday, September 24th, 2008, from 6:30pm-8:30pm, at the Merlo Library, 644 W. Belmont (refreshments will be provided).

Representative Feigenholtz & Senator Cullerton believe that “this meeting will be an effective way for our constituents to personally inform us of their thoughts and concerns regarding the current special legislative session, November’s veto session and the next legislative year.”

For residents of the 11th representative district, Senator Cullerton and Representative John Fritchey will be hosting an additional town hall meeting earlier in the week, on Monday, September 22nd. This event takes place at Sulzer Library, 4455 N. Lincoln Ave, from 7:00-9:00PM.

All 12th district constituents are invited to attend the event. Any questions regarding this event should be directed to Stephen Landfear at (773) 296-4141 or Chris Coleman at (773) 883-0770.
